

NEWS AND NOTES FROM THE WINTER RESORTS

Northern Visitors Linger In South Despite Spring

Winter Season Is Extended, While Resorters Spend Last Few Hours Enjoying Balmy Breezes; Atlantic City Crowded; Lakewood Plans New Attractions

While there is a gradual drifting back to the North of visitors who have been spending the last few weeks at Southern resorts, life at Palm Beach, Miami and other places in Florida is by no means dull and the hotels are still well filled and most of the cottages occupied. The entertaining is not on such a lavish scale as at the height of the season, but there is plenty going on to interest the late sojourners. Many members of society will remain in the South until the end of April, a month longer than usual.

Most of those leaving the Florida resorts are stopping off for a short stay at Aiken, White Sulphur and Hot Springs, where life just now is delightful. Aiken has many attractions for the visitors, and polo, horse shows, riding to hounds and dinners and dances furnish an interesting program.

At Lakewood and Atlantic City, which are more crowded than in any previous spring, arrangements are being completed for golf tournaments. The annual three-day handicap at Lakewood begins April 24 and the annual spring tournament at Atlantic City on May 8, at the Country Club. The Garden City Hotel, Long Island, opens Tuesday and already the bookings have been heavy and many entertainments have been planned for the spring.

Ideal Weather Keeps New Yorkers Close to Palm Beach Resorts

PALM BEACH, Fla., March 29.—There are over 700 cottagers here now,

Mr. and Mrs. Merton C. Nichols gave a farewell dinner at the Everglades Club, a few nights ago and will leave the early part of next week for Greenwich, Conn. James Byrne gave a dinner there for his daughter, Miss Sheila Byrne, and Miss Frances Murray, who is visiting her here.

Commodore E. C. Benedict, of Greenwich, arrived this week on his steam yacht Onida, which has just been released from government service. The Onida, when entering the inlet at Miami, went around and was on for thirty-seven hours, but time finally got her off, and she is inside the bay, having been little damaged. Mr. Benedict told friends here he is going to make one trip more around the world aboard her.

Shark Hunt Adds to Thrills for Resorters At the Miami Hotels

MIAMI, Fla., March 29.—No season of the year is so delightful in Miami as the early spring, and hundreds of tourists, who heretofore have wended their way homeward have planned to remain a while longer and enjoy the pleasures of a tropical spring. The weather has been delightfully cool, without a trace of the hot weather so many tourists expect at this time. The only abnormally warm element is the ocean. Bathers this week have found it warmer than water at the Jersey shore beaches in summer.

A novel feature during the week was a shark hunt organized by the Miami the same city, was a society event of the week. The ceremony was performed at the Henkle residence on Belle Isle. The young couple left on a honeymoon to New York before continuing to Detroit, where they will live. A large dinner was arranged Thursday evening at the Hotel Urney by Mrs. Benjamin Earl, of New York, in honor of Mrs. Walter Welsh.

Mrs. William Thaw, 8d, and her daughter, Miss Virginia Thaw, returned to Pittsburgh early in the week, after enjoying a cruise of several weeks in lower Biscayne Bay.

Golfing Tourney to Be First Feature of Lakewood Season

Many New Yorkers Listed as Early Arrivals—Resort to Vote on Plan to Change the Form of Government

LAKESIDE, March 29.—Hotels here are filled with visitors who are attracted by the excellent weather and a full programme of out-of-door sports. Among those who have come to spend the spring season are Mrs. A. E. McVitty and A. E. McVitty, Jr., of Bryn Mawr; Mrs. C. F. Richmond, Miss Lucia Richmond and Douglas Richmond, of Brookline, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Lamont and the Misses Lamont, of Evanston, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Whitney, of Boston; Mr. and Mrs. F. H. One of the large editing parties here for the last week was that formed by eight members of the Country Club of Albany. In the party were Arthur E. Andrews, Corporation Counsel of Albany; Thomas J. Van Antwerp, president of the Union Trust Company of Albany; Francis D. Crowder, Delancy N. Ellis, L. N. Hendricks, W. W. Batchelder and C. S. Hawley.

On April 15 a special election will be held to determine whether the township form of government, under which the resort is now operated, will be changed to a commission form of government. The proposed change was favored by the Chamber of Commerce.

Lakewood is to have one of the best athletic fields in the state of New Jersey. Work is almost completed on a large field directly behind the local high school. A baseball diamond, cinder track, football field, tennis courts and out-of-door basketball court will enable the resort to hold large field meets.

Garden City Ready to Drop Wartime Gloom

GARDEN CITY, L. I., March 29.—Many well-known residents of Manhattan, Brooklyn, Washington and other sections will arrive here Tuesday at the opening of the Garden City Hotel. Lovers of outdoor life who have been wintering in the South or on the Pacific coast will again return, and with the resuming of golf, polo, tennis and motoring the most few months will place this section prominently before the public once more.

Former members of the Meadow Brook Hunt Club and international poloists who have been with the artillery, remount and cavalry service in France are fast returning to their homes in this section and about Westbury, Winnetka Hills and Piping Rock, and preparations are now being made to reopen the four polo fields at the Meadowbrook Hunt Club and those on the private estates of the members about Westbury.

Woman Suffrage Bill Introduced in Porto Rico House

League of Women Opposes Measure as Far-reaching; Would Limit Granting of Equal Rights to Educated

SAN JUAN, Porto Rico, March 13.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press.)—That women in Porto Rico share all rights granted to men under the existing laws, is the proposal of an act introduced into the House of Representatives by Representative Gonzalez Mena.

The Woman's League of Porto Rico, with more than 2,500 members throughout the island, and which is working to obtain the vote for women, is not in favor of the bill, as it is considered too sweeping in its terms. The league fears that if the vote is given to ignorant and illiterate women throughout the island it will mean only more votes to be controlled by the politicians.

It wants votes only for women who can read and write, more for educational and patriotic reasons than for political purposes, and the women expect to use their influence and power to spread charitable, moral and intellectual values.

Under the control of the Woman's League of Porto Rico, the woman suffrage movement in the island has made a considerable advance, considering that it has been in progress only two years.

Ready Market for Buffalo Wyoming Stockmen Easily Disposed of 23 in Omaha

When "Bill" Clayton, of Thermopolis, Wyo., stockman, arrived in South Omaha stock market the other day with a carload of twenty-three buffalo consigned to a commission company for sale on the market, men at the yards turned their heads and laughed at Bill's judgment.

There had never before been such a consignment of bison at the local market. Who wanted buffalo, and who would buy them? were the questions asked. Even Theodore Tilton, with much ranch life experience and knowing well the sale end of the buffalo, thought Bill was trying to put one over on him.

But Bill showed them. The next day Miller Brothers, of Bliss, Okla., purchased sixteen of the cows for their Wild West show, and Arthur Rogers, a local commission man, bought six more and sent them to a Nebraska ranch.

Then, right on top of this, Bill sold four more carloads of buffalo. An Iowa farmer and cattle feeder contracted for two carloads, to be delivered in three weeks. He will pasture them this summer and finish them off for the market next fall just before the holidays. Montana and Wyoming officials wired Bill and each bought one carload of buffalo for state park purposes.—Omaha News.
